Budgie

schleich FARM WORLD Budgie:

The plumage shimmers bright green and the wings are decorated with a black wavy pattern – a real eye-catcher! The budgerigar is small, curious and loves company. He prefers to travel in a flock. But he also enjoys spending time with his human friends. Then he chirps happily and sings new songs. Beautiful!

The bright green budgie with the yellow head may be small, but its cheerful chirping can be heard from afar. The little bird is very curious and keeps a close eye on what is going on around him. He comments on everything with his chirping. Budgerigars are true vocal artists and can also imitate many sounds. This sociable bird always puts everyone in a good mood with its singing talent. No wonder people like to have him as a house mate.
